

Delta Phi Epsilon Northeastern University

PRESENTS A
Health Panel
FOR ANOREXIA NERVOSA
AND ASSOCIATED DISORDERS

Join Timberline Knolls and Delta Phi Epsilon at Northeastern University for a Health Panel in support of their philanthropy, The National Association for Anorexia Nervosa and Associated Disorders (ANAD), on SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 2018 11 A.M.-2 P.M. on Northeastern's campus.

This event will feature TK's very own Jena Morrow who will share her story of hope with the Northeastern community. A panel discussion will follow that includes local counselors, dietitians, and eating disorder specialists who will speak on the various aspects of eating disorders, mental health, and education.

The event will also include a buffet-style brunch, a self-love photobooth, and a silent auction where all proceeds will be donated to ANAD. Please contact curran.em@husky.neu.edu for more information if you wish to attend. Tickets must be reserved in advance.

Timberline Knolls is a residential treatment center located on 43 beautiful acres just outside Chicago, offering a nurturing environment of recovery for women ages 12 and older struggling to overcome eating disorders, substance abuse, mood disorders, trauma and co-occurring disorders. An adult partial hospitalization program is available on campus for step down as well as in Orland Park, Ill., for women to direct admit. By serving with uncompromising care, relentless compassion and an unconditional joyful spirit, we help our residents help themselves in their recovery.
